

About earthquake in Abruzzo

After some days of earthquake the ENS have created the site (in italian) <http://www.ens.it/specialetteremoto/index.asp> [translated in english from google <http://translate.google.it/translate?u=http%3A%2F%2Fwww.ens.it%2Fspecialetteremoto%2Findex.asp&sl=it&tl=en&hl=en&ie=UTF-8>] to provide further informations about the earthquake situation happened in Abruzzo Region.

There have few deafies died and many of them rest without house so the ENS have contacted the National Emergency and Civil Protection to build a large broad of visual services (relay service, sms, email, fax, tty, and phone) to be able to contact deaf people and their families, friends.

The Association of sign language interpreter in Italy (ANIOS), in collaboration with the ENS, offered sign language interpreter volunteers for national funeral.

The Deaf School in Rome have decided to offer their solidarity to welcome people, who are in difficulty, in Abruzzo to stay in their School.

Moreover the ENS have created a new bank account to support the people in Abruzzo and any future emergency there.
